

I am in opposition of the weakening of Indiana's Telephone Privacy law. The attempt, on the part of Consumer Bankers Association, to impose the federal "established business relationship" exemption on Indiana consumers will weaken our telephone privacy as Indiana citizens. I sincerely hope that the petition currently before the FCC to pursue this will be withdrawn by the Consumer Bankers Association.